

Associate Professor Gale Jones

Gale holds a BS in Chemical Engineering from NC State, a Minority Leadership Certification from John Hopkins University, a MS in Human Resources Management from Troy University, a Bachelor and Masters of Art in Bible from Immanuel Baptist Theological Seminary where she is also a candidate for her doctorate. She has her Professional Human Resources certification and is a certified John Maxwell Speaker, Coach and Trainer.

Gale is an Ordained Minister of the Gospel under the leadership of Bishop Billy B. Avery of Emmanuel Life and Worship Center. Her primary role is one of teaching and she is active in the Praise Team and Choir.

Gale is married to Rodney, retired Army and currently lives in Newnan Georgia. They have one daughter and 2 grandchildren who live in Pennsylvania.

Gale fully embraces Dr. James Stewart's statement that "No Society ever rises above it's Biblical Theology." As a result, Gale believes in continuous learning and application of the Bible through prayer, study, and sharing with others. 2 Timothy 2:15 Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.